

The Hooksett Heritage Commission cordially invites you to attend the

Lambert's Park Re-Dedication & Historical Storyboard Unveiling

Celebrating Hooksett's History During Old Home Day

Saturday, September 19, 2026

1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Alfred J Lambert Riverside Park
74 Merrimack Street
Hooksett, New Hampshire

Join us for a special ceremony commemorating the re-dedication of Alfred J Lambert Riverside Park and the unveiling of the new historical storyboards that preserve and share the rich history of Hooksett and the Lambert family for generations to come.

The one-hour program will include:

- Welcome and Opening Remarks
- A Brief History of the Alfred J Lambert Riverside Park Storyboard Project
- Official Re-Dedication of Lambert's Park
- Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony
- Unveiling of the Historical Storyboards
- Group Photograph

This project was made possible through the dedication and collaboration of the Hooksett Heritage Commission, the Town of Hooksett, the Hooksett Historical Society, local historians, volunteers, community partners, and many individuals committed to preserving and sharing Hooksett's unique heritage.

We would be honored by your presence as we celebrate this significant milestone in preserving our community's history and honoring the legacy of Alfred J Lambert Riverside Park.

Please join us as we commemorate the past, celebrate the present, and inspire future generations through the stories that define Hooksett.

We look forward to welcoming you.
